

I like having traffic when I want it, not just at the scheduled traffic broadcasts. I drive truck for a living and I enjoy listening to stations and not lose reception as I pass out of the area. I pay for this service and don't feel my radio listening should be subject to AM radio station broadcasters who are afraid of losing their sponsors because they don't choose to be competitive with satellite radio. Respectfully, Stephen Henry